

Dublin

17 March - 23 March 2016

Follow 3A and 3E in a journey through the most fascinating places of the capital city of Ireland!

Friday, 18

Trinity College

---

Trinity College Old Library, with a collection of 200.000 old books, is a real work of art.

Marble busts of famous philosophers and writers actually create a perfect atmosphere of knowledge which catches visitors from all around the world.

---

We were simply astonished by the magnificence of the library!

Saturday, 19

Howth

We were really enthusiastic and excited to walk in such a quiet and relaxing landscape!

Tiring but worth it!

Nothing's better than spending time together outdoors!

Sunday, 20

Belfast

Titanic...

The museum where you find out everything you don't know about the "unsinkable" ship.

...and graffiti

We were really impressed by the meaningful pieces of street art about Irish and world history.

Monday, 21

Aboard the Jeanie Johnston!

The ship which helped lots of Irish people escape from starvation taking them safely to America.

We spent our afternoon learning about how Ireland faced its worst catastrophe ever, the Great Famine.

A very interesting experience!

Tuesday, 22

Dublin Castle

With an extraordinary variety, from old medieval towers to luxurious rooms and religious treasures, Dublin Castle documents centuries of Irish history.
